FLORIDA DESIGN

INTO THE WILD
A Mediterranean Villa Amid Central Florida's Rustic Wetlands

KITCHEN & BATH 2026
New Collections and Latest Innovations

TEXT CHRISTOPHER DAY

Outdoor Appeal

PORTSIDE LUXURY EXPANDS ITS FOOTPRINT WITH A NEW FLAGSHIP IN WEST PALM BEACH

Portside Luxury owners Ralph and Danielle Hanan

LEFT: Furniture from the Amba collection by Point, one of the brands available at Portside Luxury's new West Palm Beach outpost.

BELOW: Kettal's Tou Club lounge chair, made from natural rattan, is part of Portside Luxury's inventory.

Known for its cosmopolitan assortment of outdoor furniture brands, Portside Luxury has ventured far from its New Jersey headquarters and into West Palm Beach for what it's calling its Southern flagship. The new shop (at 5144 Georgia Avenue within The Factory) houses collections by Point, Dedon, Kettal, Roda, Talenti, Ethimos, Janus et Cie, and others in a spacious 2,000-square-foot space that presents a variety of alfresco environments for inspiration. "After supporting homeowners and designers on projects throughout South Florida, we are excited to bring our specialized approach to luxury outdoor furnishings to West Palm Beach," says Ralph Hanan, the company's president. "We look forward to helping clients create spaces that are as beautifully designed as the interiors they complement." portsideluxury.com

ABOVE AND RIGHT: The fluorite Clarity mirror and Love Yourself console (made of white and rose onyx) are among the offerings at Sanamama in Bay Harbor Islands.

GOOD-VIBES RETAIL

CRYSTAL HOMEWARES AWAIT AT SANAMAMA IN BAY HARBOR ISLANDS

Favored by celebrities such as Taylor Swift and Sarah Michelle Gellar, Sanamama is known for its bohemian jewelry, but true fans also know about its collection of crystal furniture and homeware statement pieces, which is a big part of the Miami brand's first store in Bay Harbor Islands (1160 Kane Concourse). "Every piece I create carries a story, an energy, an intention," says owner Gabi Torres, a devotee of yoga, crystal work, and energy medicine. "This place gives those pieces a home where people can truly connect with them." Said items to commune with include mirrors, tables, sconces, benches, and desks made with onyx, quartz, fluorite, and other mineral crystals sourced throughout the world. sanamama.com

PHOTO COURTESY OF SHOPS